A woman with dark hair is shown in profile, looking down into an open oven. The oven's interior is illuminated with a bright orange-red glow, suggesting something is burning. The woman's face is partially lit by this light, and she has a concerned or questioning expression. The background is dark and out of focus, showing what appears to be a kitchen setting. The text "is something burning?" is overlaid in the center of the image in a white, serif font.

“is something burning?”

A woman with dark hair and bangs is sitting in a bathtub. She is holding a black mobile phone to her ear with her right hand and a magazine with her left hand. The magazine has a circular logo and some text, including "WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?", "BONATTI'S", and "PITA". The scene is lit with a strong blue and purple light, creating a moody atmosphere. The background shows vertical lines, possibly from a shower curtain or wall panels.
